MEMO

TO: Consul General, Larry Lane DATE: July 12, 1982
FM: NIV Chief, William Moody

SUBJECT: MORALES/GARCIA NIV CASE

Morales called at about 2:40p.m. I spoke with him for about 3 or 4 minutes trying to get him to agree to come in. He said that they would only come in if they received concrete assurances that they would receive visas. He then put Garcia Cañas on the 'phone. He and I spoke for about 10-12 minutes and he also insisted that they would only come in to be issued visas. He said they would only discuss with members of the U.S. Congress and with the U.S. public, in the U.S., any other matter. They would not discuss anything more with any member of the U.S. Embassy.

Much as I entreated them to be reasonable and come in to discuss the question of their visas, so that I could forward the information to Washington, they refused to budge from their positions. Garcia finally agreed to call me back tomorrow at about 2:30p.m. to find out what, if any, news from Washington. I told him that I had doubts that there would be any word from Washington if they did not come in and further discuss their cases. He said they did not have a telephone number to leave me as they were moving around.

I did not mention the Sullivan case. As the Sullivan family wants to be called by them should I request them to call the numbers in State 190479 if they should still refuse to come in tomorrow?
